IMPORTANT NOTICE

SUPPLEMENTAL SPOUSAL LIABILITY COVERAGE

New York State law requires an insurer issuing or delivering a policy that satisfies the requirements of New York Vehicle and Traffic Law article 6 to provide supplemental spousal liability insurance upon payment of the premium if the policy is a non-commercial motor vehicle policy and a first named insured has indicated that such insured has a spouse on the insurance application or if supplemental spousal liability insurance is currently on the policy, unless a first named insured elects, in writing, to decline and refuse such insurance in the policy.

Supplemental spousal liability insurance provides bodily injury liability coverage under a motor vehicle insurance policy when a person is injured or killed in a motor vehicle accident caused by the negligence of the person's spouse.

This coverage is included within the policy's bodily injury liability limits and does not increase the amount of those limits. For example:

Insured's bodily injury policy coverage limit: $100,000/$300,000

Insured's bodily injury damage claim paid to spouse: $75,000

Insured's bodily injury policy coverage limit available to all other claimants subject to a maximum of $100,000 per person: $225,000

This example assumes the spouse and other claimants involved in the accident have a right to sue the insured for economic loss or for non-economic loss (i.e., pain and suffering) sustained as a result of a "serious injury" as defined in Insurance Law section 5102(d). It must also have been shown that there was negligence on the part of the insured.

If you decline this coverage, then the injured or deceased spouse would not be covered under the bodily injury liability coverage in the policy.

The additional premium for supplemental spousal liability insurance is 4% of the bodily injury premium. If you do not decline or have not previously declined this coverage in writing, supplemental spousal liability insurance is automatically included in your motor vehicle insurance policy. If the supplemental spousal liability insurance is not declined in writing, failure to pay the supplemental spousal liability insurance premium may result in the issuance of a policy cancellation notice for nonpayment of premium.

Supplemental Spousal Liability covers bodily injury to an insured's spouse under Coverage A (bodily injury) where an insured spouse becomes liable because of the death of or injury to their spouse, even where the injured spouse must prove the culpable conduct of the insured spouse. This applies only to motor vehicle liability insurance policies that satisfy the requirements of Article 6 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic law. This coverage is provided to a first named insured who has indicated they have a spouse on the application. This coverage is included in all policies where the first named insured has indicated they have a spouse on the application unless the first named insured has chosen to exclude this coverage in writing which is indicated in the Coverages, Limits of Liability and Premiums section of the Declarations Page. This coverage is also available if requested in writing by an insured.

Your policy includes Supplemental Spousal Liability Coverage. The first named insured has the option to opt out of this coverage in writing for a premium savings of 4% of your bodily injury coverage premium for each vehicle.

If you want information on discounts available in New York, or want to know the circumstances under which you may remove surcharges from your policy and receive a refund, refer to the Rating Information form we send you each year, or contact your Travelers representative.
